

Capital Society Much Interested In Miss Southerland's Engagement

Daughter of Naval Officer
Is an Acknowledged
Belle in Washington.

Gossip over the tea cups in exclusive circles of Washington society for the last few days has been concerned mostly with the announcement of the engagement of Miss Mary Southerland, daughter of Rear Admiral W. H. H. Southerland, U. S. N., and Mrs. Southerland, to Louis Bacon, of Boston. The announcement was made shortly after Miss Southerland's return from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Francis B. Crowinshield at their summer home at Marblehead, Mass., and was preceded by a well authenticated rumor of the engagement from the Hub city.

Miss Southerland, since her debut, has been an acknowledged belle in Washington society, and her engagement to numerous attentive suitors has been rumored from time to time only to be emphatically denied until now. According to previous reports, the charming young woman was to enter first Cabinet, then diplomatic circles, and more recently her name has been coupled with the son of a millionaire Senator.

The wedding, which is expected, will take place January 3, will be one of the most important events of the social season and will be the occasion for numerous festivities. Miss Southerland is an intimate friend of Mrs. Taft and Miss Taft and a frequent guest at the White House. She is Miss Taft's most constant companion on the latter's many horseback rides through the parks in Washington and the adjacent country.

At the marriage of Countess Luise-Alexandra von Bernstorff, daughter of the German Ambassador and Countess Bernstorff, and Count Pourtales of the embassy staff, which took place last spring, Miss Southerland was one of the bridesmaids.

Mr. Bacon is the son of Mrs. Francis B. Bacon, of Boston, and a member of the Eastern Yacht Club of that city, owning the yacht Vanessa. He will take his bride to that city to live.

A brilliant company thronged St. Thomas Church last Wednesday for the marriage of Miss Olga Roosevelt, daughter of Dr. J. B. Roosevelt, and Mr. Taft, and Miss Taft were among the guests attending the reception at the Roosevelt home on Massachusetts avenue afterwards. New York also was well represented by a number of relatives and friends of the Roosevelt family, who have been in the city since their home for the last few years. The youthful bride made a charming picture in her gown of rich ivory satin and lace; and an interesting feature in connection with the wedding was the fact that the clergyman, the Rev. John T. Wood, of St. Thomas, is the bride's godfather.

Two distinguished British subjects who were considerably feted in official and diplomatic circles last week are Mrs. Margaret L. Wood, wife of Dr. Woods, master of the Temple and late President of Trinity College, England, and Lady Gregory of Cool Park, Ireland.

Mrs. Woods, who came to the National Capital to deliver two lectures on the history of the House of Mercy, was a guest at the British embassy during her stay here, and among the entertainments given in her honor was a large reception Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Julian James.

Lady Gregory, who spent the week in Washington in connection with the presentation of her plays by Irish players at the Lyceum, and the entertainment of fashionable folk at the home of the Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. MacVane, who began their hostilities for the season with a large reception in her honor Friday afternoon. Among the other functions given here was a luncheon by Mrs. Wickham, wife of the Attorney General, the same day.

That athletic sports still are claiming the attention of the smart world, despite the tea, dinner, and dance cards which are beginning to be issued, since the Bachelors set the ball rolling last week by announcing the dates for their three annual regattas, was well evidenced by the numerous gay parties in attendance at the Georgetown football on Saturday afternoon.

Friday afternoon the smart set again will come together at Fort Myer when the annual cavalry and artillery drill for the benefit of the Army Relief Society will be given. President and Mrs. Taft have accepted a box and have signified their intention of being present.

The marriage of Miss Anna Virginia Gardner and Fletcher Hamilton Burke, of Buffalo, N. Y., was solemnized Wednesday morning at the Shrine of the Sacred Heart, the Rev. J. P. McGee officiating. Attending Leonard, of Rome, Italy, and Miss Lydia Gardner were the only attendants.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Burke will reside at 35 Cleveland avenue, Buffalo.

Bryan Templeton Healey announces the marriage of his daughter, Miss Angelina Healey, to Walter Barron Anderson, Wednesday, November 15. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Eugene Del. McDonnell, pastor of St. Aloysius Church.

The bride wore a gray chiffon broadcloth with touches of pink and was attended by her sister, Mrs. J. Matthews as matron of honor. The wedding was attended by J. T. Matthews, as best man.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Anderson left for their bridal trip. They will visit New York, Niagara Falls, the Great Lakes, and Chicago, returning to Washington December 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustine Derby, of New York, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daughter, Sunday, October 23. Mrs. Derby formerly was Miss Olga Converse, daughter of Mrs. Converse and the late Rear Admiral Converse, U. S. N., and was one of the most popular Washington debutantes of several seasons ago.

Mrs. Stott and Miss Stott, mother and sister of the late Lieut. C. Stott, have returned to Washington for the winter, and have taken an apartment in the Wyoming.

Capt. William G. Fay, U. S. M. C., and Mrs. Fay have as their guests Lieut. Hayne Ellis, U. S. N., and Mrs. Ellis.

Capt. John Guest, U. S. A., retired, and Mrs. Guest have returned to Washington from Europe, where they spent the summer.

Miss Hazel Ruddock, of Baltimore, is spending several days in Washington visiting relatives on Capitol Hill.

REDUCING THE DIVORCE AVERAGE

The other day a well-known divorce lawyer made the remark that the majority of women seeking divorce are fat.

As a woman advances from youth to middle age, she thickens and broadens (unless she be wise); hence, husband grows less anxious to please her, as her own charm over others grows less. In time this process ends up in a divorce court.

Women who have (husbands) must hold. For this nothing serves like a beautiful figure. But, how overcome the thickening of middle age? Very simple. Exercise will not do—does not housework fall? and dieting makes wrinkles. Instead, escape both bother and wrinkles, by taking a Marmola Tablet after each meal and at bedtime. These tablets will take off a pound of fat a day—beginning the reduction where it shows the most, viz., on hips, chin, abdomen, etc. Get down to the lost, youthful figure the day under your fat; and then stay there with the occasional help of a tablet. Anticipate no ill-effect, there will be none; the tablets will rather increase your well-being, as they are, a guaranteed reproduction, in convenient form of that famous fashionable formula, 1/2 oz. Marmola, 1/2 oz. Pl. Ex. Cascara Aromatic, 3/4 oz. Peppermint Water. They are also low in cost, a large case, of the makers, the Marmola Co., 281 Farmer Bldg., Detroit, Mich., or any druggist, costing only seventy-five cents.
